C. G. BRIDGES,

(For the Chief.)
On the evening of the 24th inst., it was our good fortune to be one among the guests that were assembled to witness the marriage rite, in which Miss Frances C. Jeasee, second daughter of Mr. George Jeasee, was united in marriage to Mr. B. N. Forbea. Rev. T. K. Ronch officiated. After the bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends, all were ushered into the dining room, where a sumptons feast was prepared; and the manner in which the cakes and delicacies disappeared was proof positive that they were appreciated by all. The bride was dressed with exquisite taste, which added to her personal charms and many virtues made a bride well worthy to be proud of. A Sure Way to Mahe Money.

A Sure Way to Make Money.

In the jurying of goods, most people who wish to prosper, study economy in their purchases; and it is a truth, that the item of Boots and Shoes is no small one, in the families of both rich and poor. To reduce the expense of that item, it becomes necessary to buy where the best and greatest quantity of goods can be found, for the least money; and that place is at an exclusively Boot and Shoe store.

C. G. Bridges, of Troy, keeps the only Boot and Shoe atore in the city, and has an excellent variety of all goods in that line. He has them fine, and also common, but always recommends good goods. He proposes keeping the largest stock in Northern Kansas, and selling them to eash buyers as low that they can austain him in trade, and buy cheaper than at St. Joseph or Atchiaon. It will pay farmers of the whole County to inquire of their families, in relation to the number of pairs of boots and shoes, the sures and numbers, and give Mr. B. a call. Liberal discount will be made on large bills, and cash buyers. Recollect this article, and when you come to Troy, inquire for the Boot and Shoe store of C. G. Bridges, which you will find near south-west corner of Public Square, one door north of Shepberd's Drug Store, Sign of the Big Red Boot.

The Times is a little hard on Sol. Miller. We roomed, and even went so far as to bed with Sol. Miller, at the time of Caldwell's election to the United States Senate, but failed to learn of all United States Senate, but failed to learn of all this, "selling out" by Sol. Miller. If Sol. did sell—and Authony seems to know—he is the smartest man in the world. We were smelling after him (Miller) all the time to catch him in some mean, dirty work, so that if he ever wanted office we could expose him. We failed in the attempt, and now feel ashamed of ourself that anch business went on before our eyes without the least knowledge of it, on our part. We are consoled by the old saying, "It takes a rogue to catch a rogue," We could not catch him.—Lear. Herald.

Sol Miller's Kansas Chief was awarded the first premium at the Kansas State Fair for being the best printed newspaper in that State, and the decision was just one. Sol's paper is by far the handsomest country paper we ever saw, and is most excellently edited, a fact which is recognized everywhere in the West, and especially by a long list of subscribers. But its politics are fearful to contemplate.—St. Joseph Gazette.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Among the great discover, as of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Threat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and ofther constries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The restimony of our best eitisens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that Cherny Pattonate will and does relieve and care the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, circle by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may re y for full protection. By curing Congles, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Fulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which best the Throat and Chest of childhoot, Cherny Perconart, is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Indusenza and painful Brêncalities, when they know how easily they can be executed.
